

The Howard W. Hunter Foundation Presents

The Future of Our Faith

A CONVERSATION WITH

Adam Miller

Author

Letters to a Young Mormon

Rosalynde Welch

Associate Director

Maxwell Institute for Religious Scholarship

Joseph Spencer

Editor

Journal of Book of Mormon Studies

Moderated by Matthew Bowman

Hunter Chair of Mormon Studies at Claremont Graduate University

Venue #1: Friday September 13, 7:30pm

61 Montecito Dr
Corona del Mar, CA 92625

7:30 - 8:30: A moderated conversation about scripture, faith, hope, and the rising generation

8:30 - 9:30: Mingling and Desserts

Venue #2: Saturday September 14, 7:30pm

4357 Chevy Chase Drive
La Canada Flintridge, CA 91011

7:30 - 8:30: A moderated conversation about scripture, faith, hope, and the rising generation

8:30 - 9:30: Mingling and Desserts

---

SUGGESTED DONATION: $100/PERSON

Venmo @Christie-Frandsen or at the door

Christie Frandsen

@Christie-Frandsen

All proceeds go to support the Scholarship Fund for Mormon Studies students at CGU.

---

RSVP to Christie Frandsen:

Text 818-209-9821 or christiefrandsen@gmail.com

---

CGU's Mormon studies program has half a dozen alumni teaching in the College of Religious Education at BYU, four working in the LDS Church History Department, and another two running Mormon studies programs at Utah Valley University and the Graduate Theological

Union in Berkeley, California. The Howard W. Hunter Foundation raises money to support the education of the students following in their footsteps.

THANK YOU
For your support!